

E. Lyman Gerber

Ether Lyman Gerber, 89, of Salt Lake City, died Sept. 30, 1985.

Born April 17, 1896, Midway, Utah, to Moroni and Emily Jane Jacob Gerber. Married Correllia Adelia Hanks, Feb. 25, 1920, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Survived by 1944 married son, Hickson, and daughter, Fern. He worked as a carpenter and a contractor. High priest in the Sugar House Ward. Also served a mission in the southern state mission.

His survivors include his wife, Minnie, 84, daughter, Mrs. Helen (Punie) Swenson, 80, and two sons, Clyde, 74, and Glen, 71. Gerber, Willard Hickson, of Salt Lake City; Ernie A. Hickson, Foster City, Calif.; daughter, Mrs. Syvon (Irene) Christensen, Burbank, Calif.; 29 grandchildren; 56 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; sisters, Fern Swann, American Fork, Utah; Frank (Helen) Jones, Lehi, Utah; and John W. Gerber, Salt Lake City. A son, David, died in 1968. Funeral services will be Thursday, 12 noon, in the Sugar House Ward, 1950 South 1200 East, where friends may call Thursday, one hour prior to services. Interment, Mount Olivet Cemetery. Funeral directors, Larkin Mortuary.